

General Rules of The World is Yours International Scholarship Essay

- Essay must solely be the original work of the applicants. Plagiarism will result in disqualification.
- Decisions of the judges are final.
- Mentors of The Collegiate Voice and immediate family members are not eligible for this essay contest. Immediate family members of the judges are not eligible for this essay contest.
- The Collegiate Voice will sponsor all passport fees. Receipts will be needed or the contestant will be solely responsible for these fees.
- The Collegiate Voice will sponsor flight, housing, food, and tours. Participant will need their own money for other expenses, i.e. souvenirs.
- Contestant is responsible for their travelers insurance.
- All submissions become property of The Collegiate Voice to use, reproduce, or distribute as it sees fit in its sole discretion, although authorship may be acknowledged.
- By accepting a travel scholarship, winners grant to The Collegiate Voice the right to edit, publish, copy, display and otherwise use their essay in connection with this contest, and to further use their names and biographical information in promotional materials without further compensation or permission, except where prohibited by law.
- The Collegiate Voice will make every reasonable attempt to read and have judged every essay, but The Collegiate Voice is not responsible for failure to read and/or judge an essay.
- The number of prizes may be changed at The Collegiate Voice sole discretion.
- By participating in this essay contest and/or accepting a prize, contestants agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless The Collegiate Voice, its managers, members, directors, officers, and employees, from and against any and all liability and costs in connection with any claim from any liability, injury, damages, cost or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of or connected to participation in this contest or the acceptance, possession, use or misuse of any prizes.
- Under no circumstances shall The Collegiate Voice, its managers, members, directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors or licensors, be liable to the contestant for any indirect, punitive, special or consequential damages.
- Depending on the number of responses, The Collegiate Voice may institute a cutoff at which time we will refuse to receive additional new applications. Therefore, if you are interested in participating in this essay contest, you should submit your application as soon as possible.
- If there are changes to these rules they will be sent by email and will be considered read and accepted by the contestant. If they are not acceptable, the contestant may withdraw from this essay contest.
- Any dispute arising from this contest will be determined according to the laws of the State of Michigan, without reference to its conflict of law principles. The contestant's participation in the contest shall constitute consent to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Michigan, and agreement that such courts have exclusive jurisdiction over all such disputes.
- All application material must be submitted to tcvtravel1@gmail.com
- Contact Us:
  - For questions about The Collegiate Voice "The World is Yours International Scholarship Essay Contest you may email: tcvtravel1@gmail.com or info@thecollegiatevoice.org